1. Behavioral Change Intervention

Brand: International Finance Cooperation (IFC)

Project/ Campaign/Intervention: International Finance Cooperation (IFC)
Lighting Africa

Position Held: Supervisor

Task Overview:

The IFC – World Bank Lighting Africa program was carried out pan Nigeria. It was an initiative largely driven by perception and behavioural change marketing tactics.

The objective of the program was to change people's behaviour from the use of sources of light that are harmful to their lives, health and finances to affordable, clean, modern solar lighting products (Solar lamps and home systems).

Comparisons were made between the solar systems and products such as bush lamps, kerosene lanterns, and candles amongst others) to show the target audience the need to make the switch.

The program was part of the World Bank Group's wider effort toward the goals of sustainable energy for all by 2030.

The project was launched in 2015 and ran till 2019 pan Nigeria.
